David says: “ I will offer my energy and experience to work for an alternative vision for the riding and the country to that put forward by Stephen Harper's government. If selected, I intend to speak for Metis, First Nations and non-aboriginal alike. Mine will be a fighting voice for everyone - the Meadow Lake farmer, the daycare worker in Sandy Bay, the student in Pinehouse, the trappers in Cumberland House, or the fishermen and women in Wollaston Lake. It is my hope to also be a voice for understanding across the cultural and racial divide in this far-flung riding, which covers over half of Saskatchewan. I pledge my strengths to the battle for justice and fair play for a region in Canada that has not seen enough of either.”

David farms organically (without poisonous sprays or chemical fertilizers) in Choiceland and Borden. He is a fourth generation farmer, author of the best selling book, The Fight for Canada: Four Centuries of Resistance to American Expansionism, and a fighter for justice, with a long history of supporting First Nation and Métis causes.

To win the nomination August 14 David needs your support!
